Mr. Senthil Kumar, Director of International Network and Business Development for International Operations at Ashok Leyland, was present. The event showcased the available models for the Dominican Republic, highlighting their technology, efficiency, and reliability, as well as the dealer network, workshops, and after-sales service.

2) On 07 November 2025, SS Com held a meeting with Mr. Edmundo Gil, treasurer of the India-Dominican Chamber of Commerce, to explore opportunities for enhancing bilateral trade between the two nations. The discussion, though brief, touched upon key areas where commercial collaboration could be strengthened, including the diversification of export products, the promotion of joint business forums, and the facilitation of trade missions.

3) On 11 November 2025, SS Com met with Mrs. Ana Ventura General Manager of Expo Ferretera. In this meeting Mrs. Ventura informed that like this year (2025) the next edition of Expo Ferretera 2026 would have the participation of Indian Companies. Also were discuss about the possibility of an article featuring information about the ceramics and tools business.

4) On 17 November 2025, Ambassador held a meeting with Mr. David Mármol, President of the Indian Chamber of Commerce in the Dominican Republic. During the meeting, Mr. Mármol shared how he assumed leadership of the institution, enthusiastically describing the actions undertaken to revitalize it and restore its characteristic dynamism. He explained that, after a challenging period, the Chamber has begun a reorganization process and launched new initiatives to strengthen commercial and cultural ties between India and the Dominican Republic. One of the most encouraging announcements was the arrival of new members, who will soon join to expand the network of contacts and opportunities within the Chamber. These future members, from diverse productive sectors, promise to contribute fresh ideas and innovative projects that will consolidate the Indian presence in the Caribbean nation. For his part, the Ambassador expressed his firm commitment to supporting these initiatives. He assured that the Embassy will work actively to facilitate trade and support all efforts that strengthen cooperation between the two countries. This renewed alliance opens a promising chapter for companies and entrepreneurs seeking to grow in an environment of international collaboration.

5) On 17 November 2025, Ambassador received in Embassy the delegation led by Mr. Julián Pérez, President of Consejo Empresarial Santo Domingo Norte (CESDN).
